

COURSE CONTENTS

Course Title (Symbol and No.):	191 CMED	The Ethics of Moslem Physician
Credit Hours:	1 (1 + 0)
Contact Clock Hours:	Theoretical:	15
	Clinical
	Tutorials &amp; Practicals:

Course Objectives

1. Studying the development of Medicine in Islam.
2. Exploring the Medical heritage if Islam and studying its synthesis.
3. Modulaing physician's morals on Islamic Creed foundations.

Course Outline

1. Ethics of practicing the medical profession as conceived by the early Moslem physicians.
2. Development phases of Islamic medicine and its impact on modern medical renaissance.
3. Patient rights on treating physician as viewed in Islam.
4. Ethics of carrying out medical experiments and research
5. Physicians responsibility in modern era.
6. Medicine and law.
7. Utilizing religiously prohibited items in administering treatment
8. Fetal diagnosis and physician's responsibilities.
9. Caring to destined patients.
10. Medical genetics new concepts and Islam's opinion.
11. Islamic Jurisprudence relating to plastic surgery, organ transplant, artificial insemination, and tube babies.
12. Trickery and medical ethics.
13. Islamic precepts in medical-malpracticing
14. The Prophet's medicine.
15. Islamic ethics in relation to modern medicine

Evaluation

1. Continuous Assessment: Mid year assessment examination
2. Final Examination: End of year Assessment examination

Recommended Text Books

1. Islamic Medicine by Dr. Ahmed Taha
2. Ethics and Knowledge of Physician by Zuhair Subaie and Dr.Mohammed Ali Al-Bar