

1. COURSE OBJECTIVES

1.1 General Objectives

To graduate a physician who:

- 1.1.1 Is aware of the personal qualities and attitudes required by a physician caring for women.
- 1.1.2 Has acquired adequate basic knowledge and skills in obstetrics which enable him/her to proceed into subsequent general practice, speciality training or research activities.

1.2 Specific Objectives

At the end of the course the student is expected to:

- 1.1 Perform, record and interpret a full obstetrics and gynaecology history.
- 1.2 Carry out, record and interpret a complete physical examination in all obstetrics and gynaecology groups.
- 1.3 Identify and solve common clinical problems in obstetrics and gynaecology by providing a provisional diagnosis and appropriate differential diagnosis.
- 1.4 Recognize urgent and emergency situations in obstetrics and gynaecology and be able to outline an appropriate plan of action.
- 1.5 Outline a general plan of investigations and management of common obstetrics and gynaecology problems as they relate to .
- 1.6 Demonstrate an understanding of how to use the laboratory to reach a diagnosis of common obstetrics and gynaecology problems.
- 1.7 Demonstrate knowledge of community problems related to woman's health.
- 1.8 Demonstrate knowledge of preventive aspects of woman's health problems and how to implement them.
- 1.9 Recognize her limitations concerning management of obstetrics and gynaecology patients and the need to consult and cooperate with others to provide optimum care.
- 1.10 Interact with women or relatives in a gentle, emphatic and appropriate manner.

2. Instructional strategies

2.1 Didactic teaching: Lectures, tutorials and seminars

Series of lectures, tutorials and seminars covering selected topics in obstetrics and gynaecology will be delivered to all students together at the beginning of the course.