

Program : General

Course Title : 101 (Introduction to Islamic Culture)

Course Description :

First Unit :

Islamic Culture Definition, its importance, source, challenge encounter it and attitudes of Muslim towards them.

Second Unit:

Thinking Security.

Third Unit:

Characteristics of Islam.

Forth Unit

Islamic Faith, its pillars, impacts and contradictions

Instructor: Dr / Wasima Al-Ajmi

Course Objectives (In conformity with the conceptual framework of learning outcomes):

- Education and critical thinking support
- Technologies integration and employment.
- Islamic Culture acquaintance, its characteristics and sources.

Tasks, projects and essential methods of course assessment (In conformity with the conceptual framework of learning outcomes.)

- Dialogue group Management
- Inquiry questions during the lecture.
- Discussion and Analysis
- Tasks display and discussion

Description of Course explanation method (e.g., manner of lecture, semester discussion, case study) and the instructor performs the explanation:

- Information collection, analysis, putting information into practice and submit it to students for discussion.
- Offer the subject in an appropriate manner.
- Give student the opportunity for scientific practice.

Description of technologies the student should use:

- Computer Displays.

Diverse Intended Subjects (e.g., gender, economical and social levels, age, culture and Faith (and the to handle these subjects.

- Thinking security study, as its relation with culture and faith through displaying a practical aspect for the subject, linking students with the updates and enhance the national attribution.

Grade Rating Plan (With performance quotient if possible:

No.	Evaluation Nature	Score	Acquired Week	%
1	Periodical Duties + Displays	10	4+5+7	10%
2	Semester Examination	30	Eleventh	30%
3	Final Examination	60	Final Semester	60%

