

The Activities of Reproductive Physiology Lab in The Department

- 1- Training students on diagnose and evaluate the reproductive system in male and female in farm animals. In addition, training the students on how to collect and evaluate semen and do the artificial insemination.
- 2- Conducted applied researches in reproductive physiology in farm animals.
- 3- For servicing the public, diagnose and evaluate fertility of camels, sheep and goats in individual personal farms in Riyadh and Qassim regions.