

Field Training

ANP 401

Course Description :

- Training of student on the field at one of animal production farms, to earn basic applied skills to manage the farm animals.
- Training of student on how to write scientific reports and how to use computer by several programs such as Microsoft Office programs, Sigmaplot, Interherd Management and Dairy Champ
- Training of student to make oral presentation and dissection