

Pharmaceutics department activities in academic year 1428-1429

1. Foundation of Walid Kayyali Chair for Pharmaceutical Industry.
2. Pharmaceutics department is now strongly involved in the field of biotechnology. One research proposal was accepted by the Biotechnology Center at King Saud University in 1429 with the title “Production and Site-Specific Delivery of Bleomycin for Treatment of Cancer”. Eight faculty members will be included in this project in addition to assistants. Dr. Bayomi is one of the co-researcher.
3. Another biotechnology proposal is now under revision by Dr. Bayomi to be submitted to the Biotechnology Center soon.
4. Ph.D program is now under preparation by pharmaceutics staff to be available for graduate students soon.