

Letter from a Level 2 Student

Dr Reima ,

Now I am in level one and I am working very hard to be (enshallal) in level tin, in that time always I try to improve my self in all the courses that we have, but I like writing because I like to write my feeling and my dreaming. However, I want some one can understand my writing and tell me if I have mistake or no. Excuse me doctor I want to tell you how I like you and how I like your style in teaching .how you are honest with us (I know you don't want some body like me to tell you these because you know it before) and how I be better in English because of your helping. I feel better now than the first week in the University, not just me . But all the girls in my class feel like me, so how can we thank you, how can we thank the best teacher who makes me fall in love in English. Believe me I brachiates these and I wish in one day I can do some thing for you .

Here are some lines about my opinion of the life .

The life is very beautiful. The life is very amazing, radiant, fantastic, and wonderful. I know all of these also; I know in all our life there are happy days and sad days, but why the sad days are more than the happy days in people life. I have many reasons in my mind, I don't know maybe all of them are true, or all of them are wrong. Some time I think why the children are more happy than the most adult people, so I think these is because the kids don't have any hate or malice or hatred in their heard, they smile for any one who is friendly with them, they see the life in colored color not in black color, they have a simple ways for fun, they don't afraid from the dirty, they play with every things and maybe they are sharp, but they don't care, because the important thing is to have fun .Also, they don't shay they say any thing they want it and they don't care of the protocol, which the adult consider of it. So they do many things that the adults want to do it but they are SHAY. They are so lofty, chesty, callosity and avid .They like the War, and the Ware like them, they like the hate and the hate like them, they like the bale and the bale like them. Why all these? Why ?

I think because they are adult people .
