

Article XI
UNDER GRADUATE
DENTAL (ORL 311)

Section 1.- Objective

To deliver the ENT knowledge required for the Dental and Oral Surgeons that are not expected to be covered by the Dental College curriculum.

Section 2.- Course Structure

The ENT Course 311 is for the Dental Students and are classified into two courses - Male and Female. They usually set up on the same period every second semester in the month of Shawwal, Dhul Qa'dah or Dhul Hajj.

a). Lectures:

The course is theoretical in the form of lectures. This is given one hour weekly for academic semesters. The lectures as detailed in the lecture program are given over a period of 10 weeks which includes the following subjects:

- Brief Anatomy of the Nose
- Diseases of the Nose
- Sinusitis and its Complications
- Brief Ear Anatomy, Otitis Externa, Acute otitis Media
- Chronic Otitis Media and its Complications
- Facial Nerve Paralysis
- Headache and Facial Pain
- Diseases of Pharynx
- Neck Masses
- Common ENT Emergencies I
- Airway Obstruction and its Management
- Common ENT Emergencies II
- Epistaxis and Foreign Body

Lectures for male students is being held in Diriyah Theatre at 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. every Monday and the female students is being held in Malaz at 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. every Monday.

b) Examination:

There are three (3) examinations, all are MCQ Exam and the distribution of the marks is as follows:

b.1)Continuous Assessment Examination

Examination general rules are the same and adopted to the Dental Students, PLUS:

- Examination is 20 items only and it carry 2 marks to have a total of 40 marks.
- The Secretary has to coordinate with the Dental Students' Coordinator in the University for the examination schedule and the venue specifically the rooms to be used.
- Female Dental Examination will be held in the College, Malaz Theater, while, for the Male Dental Students will be in Diriyah.

b.2) The final examination

- It is composed of 40 MCQ, which carries 60 marks. Each question will carry 1.5 marks.

c.3)Summer second chance examination:

- It is composed of 50 MCQ. Each question will carry 2 marks to have a total of 100 marks.

Student(s) who has(have) a total mark of more than 60/100 should still carries a total mark of 60 only.