The New York Times
Philippines Sends Aid for Typhoon Damage
MANILA, Nov. 10 (AP) - The Philippine Air Force ferried medical teams and relief supplies today to provinces ravaged by Typhoon Agnes. The authorities said 515 people had died in the typhoon and more than 400 were missing.
An Air Force spokesman said more than 163 tons of food, medicine and clothing had been sent to the Visayan region, 300 miles south of Manila, and more aid was on the way.
The typhoon hit the region Monday. The Spokesman said helicopters were rescuing people stranded by floods that remained chest-deep today in some areas of Panay Island, which appeared to have been hit the worst. Most of the fatalities and missing were on the Island, where 445,000 people were homeless.

passage and answer the following questions.

He was a little boy named Jim, the first and only child of Dr. Louis Davy, 717 Matte building, and it was his first day at school. His father was French, a small heavy-set man of forty whose boyhood had been full of poverty and unhappiness and ambition. His mother was dead: she died when Jim was born and the only woman he knew intimately was Amy, the Swedish housekeeper.

It was Amy who dressed him in his Sunday clothes, and took him to school. Jim liked Amy, but he didn't like her for taking him to school. He told her so. All the way to school he told her so.

I don't like you, he said. I don't like you anymore.

I like you, the housekeeper said.

Then why are you taking me to school? He said.

Everybody must go to school, the housekeeper said.

Did you go to school? He said.

No, said Amy.

Then why do I have to go? He said.
