

Tech 485, Computer Applications in Healthcare

Project:

Students are required to develop a database for any medical department at the hospital, Biomedical Engineering Department, or any other supportive department.