

Ichthyology practical (Zoo 320)

First Session:

General Introduction and orientation

Second Session:

Morphometric and meristic of fish: Study of measurements of body dimensions and numbers of different morphological characteristics.

Third Session:

Types of fish scales and shapes of caudal fins.

Fourth Session:

Classification of fishes (Class Agnatha)

Fifth Session:

Characteristics of the class elasmobranchii and a study of different types in the class.

Sixth session:

Classification of bony fishes (lung fish, Sturgeon, Bichir, and eel)

Seventh Session:

Revision

Eighth Session:

First test

Ninth session:

Freshwater fishes of Saudi Arabia.

Tenth Session:

Characteristics, distribution and types of strange fishes eg. Flying fish and Needle fish.

Eleventh Session:

Characteristics and classification of the Groupers

Twelfth Session:

Characteristics and classification of Butterfly fishes

Thirteen session:

Characteristics, classifications and types of Tuna and Mackerel fishes.

Fourteenth session :

Revision

Fifteenth Session:

Second Test