

1. This study describes the basic skills and strategies that novice translators need to master in their daily experiences with translation tasks .
2. Today's teenagers seem to be more independent than their grandparents. They want to gain experiences and make judgments themselves .
3. The prime minister has not made his speech yet, the crowd was waiting in apprehension .
4. The company provides health care and life insurance benefits for all of its employees .
5. These buildings were inspected five days ago .

Translate the following:

1. The great political, military, economic, and social changes in the world should participate in solving the problems of the world population.
2. Friendship is one of the blessings of God.
3. Though his business prosperd at home, he migrated to America.
4. A disappointment has befallen the Iraqi people who held great hopes for liberation after the change of the administration
5. When you make a judgment on someone and act upon it, this is not concerned with the person in question but shows your desire to be a critic.
6. After black clouds clear weather.
7. Buy the truth and sell it not.
8. Fortune is blind.
9. The measure of internal and mental peace of mind largely depends on living in the present. Irrespective of what happened in the past and what will occur or not in the future, as the present moment is wherever you are!