Please fill in the blank:

1. There are several methods of providing full coronal coverage to primary incisors and they are:

   a. _______________________________

   b. _______________________________

   c. _______________________________

2. In case of acid-etched resin crowns, a ________________ crown form is used.

3. Today you will be preparing tooth #____________.
Please fill in the blank:

1. There are several methods of providing full coronal coverage to primary incisors and they are:

   a. ____________________________________________

   b. ____________________________________________

   c. ____________________________________________

2. In case of acid-etched resin crowns, a ___________ crown form is used.

3. Today you will be preparing tooth #__________.