Decision measurement and evaluation of students
Diploma
137
Objectives decision measurement and evaluation

After the completion of this decision the student will be able to:
1 - knows the difference between metrology, testing and evaluation.
2 - to answer most questions that take into account when conducting Calendar.
3 - how to build the calendar.
4 - to identify global circulation models calendar.
5 - identified convert raw scores to the degree standard.
6 - types of data and methods of graphic representation of the different variables.
7 - the identification of individual differences of all kinds.
8 - spectral convert raw scores to standard.

The main themes in the decision of measurement and evaluation
M. theme
1 entrance to the measurement and evaluation in physical education and sport.
2 four important questions in the calendar.
3 calendar program.
4 arbitrator quality test
4 calendar models.
5 technology measurement and evaluation in physical education and sport.
6 individual differences.
7 calendar tools.
8 ways to convert raw scores to the degree standard.
9 graphic representation of the variables and different types