

COURSE NUMBER: RHS 434

COURSE TITLE: Selected clinical topics-1-

CREDIT HOURS: Clinical-3

PREREQUISITE : RHS 331

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is intended to reinforce the clinical application of principles of treatment and therapeutic skills to patients with cardiovascular, pulmonary and neurological diseases and also to train the students how to write a report on a selected clinical problem and how to work independently.

COURSE OUTLINE:

Week 1 Hospital orientation.
Week 2 Treatment decision making skills.
Week 3 Select a clinical problem topic.
Week 4 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 5 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 6 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 7 midterm exam.
Week 8 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 9 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 10 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 11 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 12 Presentation of the selected topics.
Week 13 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 14 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 15 Clinical practice and discussion.
Week 16 Final exam.

Textbook:

Michelle Cameron, Linda Monroe. Physical Rehabilitation: Evidence-Based Examination, Evaluation, and Intervention.