

Drunken consent is still consent; discuss this statement with reference to the crime of rape

By Sulaiman Alissa

2012

INTRODUCTION

Discussion of the issue of what constitutes consent

Presumption of an absence of consent and belief in consent

Voluntary intoxication, capacity and sexual activity

What is drunkenness and how does it affect the ability to give consent?

The cases:

R v Bree

R v Dougal

R v Bacon

R v Wright

Conclusion

Bibliography