Assessment policy:

- With an excuse, you are only allowed to take a makeup exam for only ONE quiz, OR midterm at the end of the semester (revision week).
- Assignments will either be placed on LMS with a due date OR will be given in class. There are NO makeups on any assignments missed during class.
- Plagiarism won't be tolerated in this course. According to the university policy, any plagiarized material (even one sentence) will be given a zero.

Ground Rules:

- Attendance

- ✓ If you miss more than 50% of our classes you will be no longer allowed to attend this course nor attend the final test.
- ✓ If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to contact either me or another classmate to find out what you've missed and how you prepare for the next class meeting.

- Internet Access

- ✓ Make sure you check LMS (<https://lms.ksu.edu.sa>) and your email regularly for any further announcements. It is your responsibility to check LMS regularly for any changes in the course plan.

- Email Communication:

- ✓ All communication must use KSU email (<http://student.ksu.edu.sa>).
- ✓ All communication must be course-related and in academic English or Standard Arabic.

- Presentation Guidelines

How long should it be?

The presentation should be 10-12 minutes long (each student should present for around 2 minutes). The Group will be out of 3 students.

What topic should be chosen?

You must choose an applied linguistics-related topic (NOT only linguistics) that is not in our syllabus. Each student should research one aspect of the topic and present it.

The outline:

The outline should be submitted on time, and must follow the format of the formal academic outline.

How will the marks be divided?
