

CHS 334: Epidemiology 1
First midterm Exam (Students Model)

Time allowed: 30 minutes

Date: / /1432

الاسم: _____ الرقم: _____

Please write True or False between brackets and correct the false question (s) by underlining the false word(s) and write it (them) under each question. Non corrected false question (s) will be given zero: (marks)

1. Epidemiological studies are qualitative rather than quantitative ()
.....
2. Point epidemic is a gradual occurrence in disease frequency over long periods of time ()
.....
3. The exposure in noncommunicable diseases, is a microorganism while the exposure in communicable diseases is a factor that initiates the disease ()
.....
4. In the epidemiological triad, all host factors are called "extrinsic factors" while the Environmental factors are called "intrinsic factors". ()
.....

Please circle the correct answer: (marks)

1. It is the ability of the infectious agent to produce the disease
 - a) Pathogenicity
 - b) Virulence
 - c) Infectivity
 - d) Convalescence
2. Spray with relatively large, short-range aerosols produced by sneezing, coughing, or even talking is called:
 - a) Droplet spread
 - b) Droplet nuclei
 - c) Indirect mode of transmission
 - d) Vehicle borne transmission
3. The diseases which their agents are not precisely known are called:
 - a) Idiopathic
 - b) Zoonoses
 - c) Infectious
 - d) Anthroponoses

Please fill the empty space with the correct word (s):

(marks)

1. The word epidemiology comes from the Greek words epi, meaning ----- demos, meaning ----- and logos, meaning -----
2. ----- are diseases neither caused by infectious agents nor transmitted from one person to another.
3. ----- is a phase of infectious diseases where the typical signs and symptoms of the diseases are present