

1 - It is (KUB):supine full length AP of the abdomen , it should include the symphysis pubis.

The control film is taken to:

a)verify pt position.

3

b)verify exposure factors.

c)check pt preparation .

d) rule out any calcifications or stones.

2-

	What's the type of reaction ?	What should we do ?
If the pt. begin flushing after the injection of CM ?	MILD	No need for medication Just reassure the pt

2

3 - If the contrast did not move place pt in prone position & let him\her cough

1

4 - To distinguish a cyst from a solid mass.

To determine fluid and abscess. hematoma , Silicon gel,

3

U/S can also find cancer in woman with dense breasts .

5 - Magnification is used to enlarge specific areas such as lesions or microcalcificationse

1

1 - Pelvi-uretric junction

2-Renal pelvis

3-Glandular/fibrous tissue

4-Inframamary crease

5-Lymph node

6-Pectoral muscle

7-Duplicate collecting system

8-mild to moderate dilation of pelvicalyceal