LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

To whom it may concern,

I would like to inform you that Mashael was a trainee in the Strategy & Program Management Department at the Capital Market Authority (CMA). She was responsible for the HR Integration Project with Strategy. She has conducted the project with a professional approach and contributed into the Business Planning and performance management initiatives. Moreover, Mashael was a major contributor into the Risk Assessment and Strategic Analysis exercises throughout the period of her assignment.

Mashael's positive attitude, passion, intelligence and hard working approach has strengthened S&P Management team. Therefore and without any reservation, I highly recommend Mashael for any employers that cares of having those individuals who make a difference.

Best Regards,

Amer H. Al-Ghamdi

Strategy & Program Management Manager

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am pleased to write this recommendation for admission into the Doctoral program at your university on behalf of Ms. Mashael Nasser S. Al-Mugairen

I have known Mashael for the past 2 years as an MBA student at the College of Business Administration, Prince Sultan University. She was enrolled in two of my MBA courses: Managing Organization and People, and Strategic Management.

I remember Mashael as someone who is very hard-working, dedicated, and committed in her studies. She accomplishes all the tasks assigned to her with positive attitude and great initiative. This was evident in my classes as she would invariably be the first to volunteer to present class assignments. Another quality that makes her stand out among her peers is her ability to express herself clearly and succinctly. In addition, Mashael is also a good listener, always receptive to other people's ideas and comments, and appears to be a team player. Although English is her second language, Mashael speaks and writes fluent English as good as native English speakers.

Mashael strikes me as academically very bright (she was placed in the top percentile of her MBA class) as well as very goal oriented. And given her strong self-driven determination and commitment as evidenced by her conduct in our MBA program, I have total confidence in her intellectual and emotional ability to pursue a rigorous doctoral program.

It is my honest opinion that Mashael is very much motivated to pursue the doctoral program and is singularly focused on achieving her goal. I have no hesitation to recommend her into your program and I have full confidence in her ability to excel. Thus, I solicit your most kind and wise consideration to deliberate on her application favourably.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am pleased to write this recommendation for Ms. Mashael Nasser S. Al-Mugairen whom I first met 2 years ago as a student in my Managing Organization and People course for the MBA program at Prince Sultan University. My acquaintance with Mashael continued as she later enrolled herself in my Strategic Management course. I make the following observation based on my experience working with her while teaching the two MBA courses.

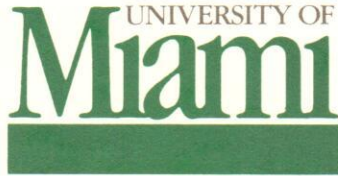

My impression of Mashael is that she is very sincere, pleasant and likeable. She shows respect for others and always makes it a point to establish good relationships with others. Mashael expresses herself clearly and is a good listener. She also strikes me as someone who is very patient with and receptive to other people's ideas and comments.

At another level, I find Mashael to be very determined, hardworking, and take duties assigned to her very seriously and responsibly, as evidenced by her conduct in carrying out various class assignments. I have been particularly impressed by Mashael's excellent presentation skills in class. I attribute her splendid presentation skills to two very important qualities: her dedication and tremendous commitment to the task and her impeccable command of spoken and written English.

Based on my association with her, I have only admiration and confidence in her. Given her motivation and determination, I believe that Mashael will undoubtedly be a valuable asset to any organization that she associates with. And thus and without hesitation I strongly recommend her for the post that she is applying for.

Thank you.

September 20, 2006

This is a letter of recommendation on behalf of Ms. Mashael N. Almugairen. Ms. Almugairen took "Organizational Behavior" (MGT 304) and "Advanced Organizational Behavior" (MGT 307) with me during the Summer of 2005 and the Spring of 2006, respectively. Her academic performance was outstanding and her final grade was "A" in both courses. I might add that she conducted herself in a very responsible and mature way, exhibiting excellent participative skills. Ms. Almugairen did extremely well in her exams and case presentation, along with her team members. She efficiently worked with them.

In light of the above, I am asking you to seriously consider Ms. Almugairen for your program. I also consider Ms. Almugairen an excellent candidate for management-related employment. If you need more detailed or selective information regarding the candidate and/or her academic performance, please feel free to contact me. I will be more than willing to answer any question that you may have. My personal phone number is (305) 284-3525 and my e-mail address is logiromero@miami.edu

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to highly recommend Mashael N. Almugairen in her endeavors to go to graduate school. I had the pleasure of being Mashael's professor in both Professional Selling and Retailing and truly believe that she will make an outstanding graduate student.

Having taught her twice I have had a good opportunity to get to know Mashael and would like to tell you what kind of person she is. First of all, she did very well in her written examinations and displayed an ability to demonstrate that she could not only memorize a great deal of material but also examine questions critically and with great thought. Secondly, her oral presentations were outstanding and she showed great presence in front of a large group of people. Finally, she was a leader in the classroom from a participation standpoint from day one. She constantly initiated and engaged her classmates and myself in thought provoking discussions and made my job much easier as an educator.

I know that Mashael is on the verge of a great career and I am excited about her prospects. Please extend her every courtesy and consider her strongly as she will make an outstanding graduate student and loyal alumni.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
