

Fill in the blanks:

-The main proteins present in serum are ______and _____

-Saturated ammonium sulphate will precipitate first _____, since it is ______ in its mwt.

-The protein remaining in the supernatant is ______

-Both experiments conducted on the precipitate and the supernatant proves that the nature of them are _____

Answer the following question:

No clotting will occur even if calcium ions were added to the serum. Why?