

Saleh Ali AlHathloul
P.o.Box 86217,Riyadh 11622
Saudi Arabia
salhathloul@ksu.edu.sa, sh@alum.mit.edu,
salhathloul@hotmail.com,

Dr. AlHathloul is a Professor of Architecture & Urban Design at KSU. He is a Saudi Arabian educator and a critic in the field of Architecture and Urbanism with interests in the epistemology of knowledge, the general issues of structural changes in society, and futurist studies; has B.Arch from King Saud University 1972, an MAUD from Harvard University, 1975 and a Ph.D. in Architecture and Environmental Studies from MIT, 1981.

He was chairman of the Department of Architecture at King Saud University, Riyadh between 1981 and 1984; chairman of the board of Al-UMRAN (Saudi Society for Architects and Planners) since its inception in 1989 till 1993

He served as Deputy Minister for Town Planning, Ministry of Municipal and Rural Affairs, Saudi Arabia between 1984 - 2004, with the responsibilities of directing and supervising the entire spatial planning process at national, regional, and local levels in Saudi Arabia. He served as a member in the boards of directors for several Government Organizations, i.e. Arriyadh Development Authority, Makkah Development Authority, Hail Development Authority and the Royal Commission for Al-Jubail-Yanbu.

Dr. AlHathloul was a member of the jury for: the Organization of Arab Cities` Award; the 1998 AgaKhan Award, Prince Sultan Bin Salman Heritage Award; AlFozan Award for Mosuqe Architecture. He is an author of 3 books and more than 70 articles in the field of architecture & Urbanism , well-known among these is his book, `` The Arab Muslim City``,(2010).

Dr. AlHathloul is an Adjunct Professor at the Collage of Architecture and Planning, King Saud University, Riyadh, chairman of the board Alhathloul Dev. Co., and an advisor on National and Regional Development Strategies for several non-profit Organizations.